THE PORT MOODY POLICE BOARD
(hereinafter called the "Employer")

PARTY OF THE FIRST PART;

AND:

THE CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, LOCAL 825
(hereinafter called the "Union")

PARTY OF THE SECOND PART.

ARTICLE 1 - PREAMBLE

WHEREAS it is the desire of both parties to this Agreement:

- (a) to maintain and improve the harmonious relations and settle conditions of employment between the Employer and the Union.
- (b) to recognize the mutual value of joint discussion and negotiations in all matters pertaining to working conditions, employment, services, etc.
- (c) to encourage efficiency in operation.
- (d) to promote the morale, well-being and security of all the employees in the bargaining unit of the Union.

AND WHEREAS it is now desirable that methods of bargaining and all matters pertaining to the working conditions of the employees to be drawn up in an Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties agree as follows:-

ARTICLE 2 - TERM OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement shall be for the period from and including 2012 January 01, to and including 2015 December 31, and from year to year thereafter subject to the right of either party to the Agreement at any time within four (4) months immediately preceding the last day of December in any year thereafter, by written notice, to require the other party of the Agreement to commence collective bargaining. The operation of sub-sections (2) and (3) of Section 50 of the Labour Relations Code shall be specifically excluded from, and shall not be applicable to this new Agreement.

Should either party give written notice aforesaid, this Agreement shall thereafter continue in full force and effect, and neither party shall make any change in the terms of the said Agreement (nor increase or

- (1) The Union has given notice to strike (or until the Union goes on strike), or
- (2) The Employer has given notice of lock-out (or the Employer shall lock out its employees), or
- (3) The parties have concluded a renewal or revision of this Agreement, or entered into a new Collective Agreement.

whichever is the earliest.

ARTICLE 3 - DEFINITIONS OF EMPLOYEE

Section 1: Definitions of Employees

"Employee" shall mean a person who is an "Employee" as defined in the Labour Relations Code.

A Regular Full-Time Employee is an employee who is employed on a full-time basis of 35, 40 or such other number of weekly hours as is recognized in the Collective Agreement as normal for a particular class of positions, for an indefinite period of time.

A Temporary Full-Time Employee is an employee who is employed on a full-time basis as set forth above, for a definite and limited period of time (which may be extended or cut short by circumstances which could not be foreseen at the time of hiring).

Where Temporary Full-Time Employees are hired for a specific project and are advised at the time of being hired of the expected duration of the project, the Employer will notify the Union as soon as possible in the event circumstances subsequently arise which have the effect of terminating the project earlier than had been expected and announced.

A Regular Part-Time Employee is an employee who is employed on a regular part-time schedule of weekly hours which are less than the number constituting full-time employment for a particular class of positions, for an indefinite period of time.

An Auxiliary Employee is any other employee. (For terms and conditions of employment, see Schedule "B".)

Section 2: Probationary Period

- (a) All new Regular Full-Time and Temporary Full-Time Employees shall complete a probationary period of eighty (80) (effective 2013 January 22, one hundred and twenty (120)) days worked.
- (b) Regular Part-Time Employees shall complete a probationary period of the same number of hours as are applicable to a Regular Full-Time Employee occupying a similar classified position.

- (c) The definition of probation referred to in (a) and (b) above shall not include employees on probation during the first eighty (80) days worked following a promotion or transfer.

ARTICLE 4 - RECOGNITION AND NEGOTIATIONS

Persons employed by the Employer whose jobs are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any jobs which are included in the bargaining unit except for the purpose of instruction, experimenting, or in emergencies when regular employees are not available, and provided that the act of performing the aforementioned operations, in itself, does not reduce the hours of work or pay of any employee.

No employee shall be required or permitted to make any written or verbal agreement with the Employer or their representatives which may conflict with the terms of this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 5 - UNION MEMBERSHIP AND CHECK-OFF OF UNION DUES

Section 1: Union Membership

- (a) All employees who are now members of the Union and those employees who subsequently become members of the Union shall remain members of the Union as a condition of employment, provided that no employee shall be deprived of employment by reason of loss of membership in the Union for reasons other than failure to pay regular Union dues that all other members of the Union are required to pay to the Union, nor shall any employee be deprived of employment by reason of the refusal of the Union to admit such employee to membership.

All employees covered by the Union Certificate of Bargaining Authority shall pay to the Union an amount equal to the Union's dues, such payment to be made by payroll deduction. This deduction shall become effective on the first day of the pay period coincident with or next following the date of appointment, but the deduction shall be made only if the employee is still in the employ of the Employer on the final day of the first pay period.

Deductions shall be made in respect of all subsequent pay periods provided an employee works any part of the pay period. These arrangements shall remain in effect for so long as this Union remains the recognized bargaining authority.

- (b) The Employer agrees to acquaint all new employees covered by this Collective Agreement with the fact that a Collective Agreement between the Union and the Employer is in effect and with the conditions of employment set out herein dealing with the Definitions of Employees, Union Membership requirement and check-off of Union dues.

Section 2: Check-Off of Union Dues

The Union agrees to advise the Employer of the amounts of such Union dues and/or general assessments as may be determined from time to time by the said Union. The Employer, upon receipt of such advice from the Union, shall thereupon deduct from the earnings of the employees such dues, fees and general assessments and shall forward to the Union the total of such amounts deducted together with a list of those employees from whom such deductions were made, such deductions to be remitted to the Union Treasurer not later than the fifteenth (15th) day of the following month.

In the event either party elects to have a three (3) member Arbitration Board, that party will notify the other party in writing within seven (7) calendar days of that party's decision to submit the difference to a three (3) member Arbitration Board and include in that written notification the name of that party's nominee to the Arbitration Board. The expenses and compensation of the Chairperson shall be shared equally between the parties. The expenses and compensation of the representatives selected shall be borne by the respective parties.

SCHEDULE "E"

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

THE PORT MOODY POLICE BOARD
(hereafter the "Employer")

AND

THE CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, LOCAL 2896
(hereafter the "Union")

COMPRESSED WORK WEEK

12 HOUR SHIFT - COMMUNICATIONS OPERATOR

The Employer and the Union agree to implement a compressed work week for the class of positions of "Communications Operator" in accordance with the following provisions:

- (b) This Letter of Understanding may be cancelled at any time during or after the trial period by either party upon thirty days' written notice to the other party.

2. Compressed Work Week Principle

The basic principle in converting from the eight (8) hour day - five (5) day week to the twelve (12) hour shift compressed work week is that there shall be no additional salary or benefit cost to the Employer and no reduction in the salaries or benefits received by the employees.

3. Twelve Hour Work Schedule

- (a) The hours of work schedule shall be based on an average of forty (40) hours per week.
- (b) The work schedule shall be developed on the concept of four (4) days on duty and four (4) days off duty. The hours of work for each shift shall consist of twelve (12) hours. These hours of work shall be inclusive of paid rest period(s) totalling thirty (30) minutes and employees shall be required to work through their meal periods. The normal shift shall be twelve (12) consecutive hours from 07:00 h to 19:00 h, or 19:00 h to 07:00 h. It is understood that four (4) adjustment days (additional days off) will be scheduled by mutual agreement between the employee and the Chief Constable, or his or her designate, during every twenty-four week period.

An employee may, with the approval of the Chief Constable or his or her designate, transfer their afternoon shift thirty (30) minute rest period entitlement to a day shift which falls on a Monday to Friday, inclusive, in order to create a total day shift rest period of one (1) hour.

The Employer may change the above shift schedule to provide for either the needs of the public or efficiency of operation. It is mutually agreed between the parties that the Employer will provide the Union with a notice setting forth the intended changes and if the Union so desires, it will, within ten (10) calendar days of such notice, discuss and provide advice to the Employer for consideration.

- (c) Article 17, Hours of Work, Sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 of the Collective Agreement shall not apply to employees covered by this Letter of Understanding.
